
Concept A-3

Asset owners are seeking a wide range of deal opportunities that can meet their specific needs and required rate of return. Managers with a local presence have greater access to a diversified range of deals and are better positioned to meet individual portfolio needs.

MetLife Investment Management Real Estate's provides you with the confidence to achieve your investment goals by offering a wide range of investment opportunities by geography, property type and risk tolerance. This is possible by our local market knowledge and broad industry relationships through 11 integrated offices around the globe and our propriety real estate research that allows us understand where to take intelligent risk.

At MetLife Investment Management, we leverage a collaborative client approach to develop tailored real estate debt and equity investment solutions that fit your specific portfolio needs. Your dedicated portfolio manager will provide strategic, expert-to-expert advice and your single-point client relationship manager will provide high quality service and proactive communications.
