
Real Estate Proof Point Statements

There is opportunity in every market, we have a strategic, expertise-driven approach to uncovering and giving you access those opportunities

- Access to a wide range of debt and equity deals by geography, property type and risk tolerances drawn from our local market knowledge and broad industry relationships.
- On-the-ground, local expertise through integrated regional origination and asset management, which provide timely and effective execution.
- Real estate presence through eleven real estate offices around the world with over 200 local professionals provides comprehensive access to market participants and opportunities.
- Employ a dedicated real estate research team that is actively monitoring over 200 markets across the U.S. to guide deal allocation that meets our clients' portfolio objectives.